BRAINERD OLDER BOYS CONFERENCE NOV. 12-14

250 VISITING DELEGATES WILL BE IN ATTENDANCE

THREE DAY INTERESTING PROGRAM ARRANGED; 40 LOCAL BOYS TO TAKE PART

"DAD" ELLIOTT, LOYAL P. THOMAS AND GLENN JACKSON AMONG SPEAKERS

The three day program of the Brainerd Older Boys' Conference which will open on Friday afternoon and continuing till Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, November 12-14, will bring to Brainerd 250 older boys from older boys' clubs from all parts of central Minnesota. The 40 local boys in attendance at the interesting three day program which has been arranged, will swell the total number of delegates to 300.

This is the first year that Brainerd has entertained an Older Boys' Conference and every effort is being made to bring about as cordial a reception in this city as possible.

"Dad" Elliott Coming

The chief speaker at the conference will be A. J. "Dad" Elliott, of Chicago, known internationally for his work among boys.

"Dad" Elliott is National Student Secretary for the Central Division. He is known as a man of exceptional ability as a speaker and a friend of all the boys. It might be said that "Dad" feels more at home in an Older Boys' Conference than the Prince of Wales at a polo game. He is much in demand as a speaker to young men and has the happy faculty of presenting his subject matter in a way that appeals to boys.

Other Main Speakers

Loyal P. Thomas, State Boys' Work Secretary, is another speaker who will be of great interest to the boys. He is a former high school athletic coach in Iowa and Nebraska, a letter man in football, basketball and track at Penn College. He coached the Norfolk, Neb., half mile relay team that established a new world's record in 1925 and won the national relay championship in Chicago the same year.

Glenn Jackson, of New York, national high school secretary, is another of the prominent speakers on the program. He needs no introduction to boys of Minnesota. He will work with the leaders of discussion groups and close the conference on Sunday.

Boys from all parts of central Minnesota will be in Brainerd for the three days. The territory included extends east to Duluth and south to Minneapolis and St. Paul, west to Detroit and north to Bemidji.

Has Own Slogans

The Brainerd Older Boys' Conference, under the auspices of the State Association of Young Men's Christian Associations of Minnesota, has for its conference theme, "The Quest of the Best," its slogan, "Anything Short of the Best is Bad," and its conference song "Our Best."

Last year the State Older Boys' Conference was held in Minneapolis, at which 729 delegates were present, which included a fine delegation from Brainerd.

The purpose of Older Boys' Conferences and Older Boys' Clubs is to lead high school boys and older boys to think through life's problems and develop a Christian attitude for all of a young man's relationships, home, church, school, community.

It is planned to entertain boys and leaders free for lodging and breakfast in the homes of Brainerd. The enrollment fee of $1.75 includes banquet and conference badge. It is open to all boys of good character, 15 to 21 years of age, who come for the entire conference.

One adult leader must accompany five boys. The Conference Committee insists that boys' registrations be accepted only when a leader is so provided.

Conference Information

The following information has been given to the visiting delegates: A three days' program full of good fellowship, good speeches, good discussions and good eats.

A contest will be conducted among the various delegations in which leadership, advance paid enrollments, attendance, banner, etc., count for points. Complete information is found on the "delegation contest blank."

The conference photograph will be taken Saturday at 11:45 A. M. and will be on sale at the banquet.

Registration takes place at Conference Headquarters at 2 P. M. Friday. All meetings except the banquet

AT LEAST ONE MAIL DELIVERY CHRISTMAS DAY

Washington, Nov. 9.—(UP)—At least one mail delivery on Christmas day to be made in the forenoon was ordered today by the post office department for all city and village carriers. Carriers did not work at all last Christmas but the fact that Sunday follows Christmas this year makes partial work necessary to avoid congestion.

will be held at the Methodist church. The banquet is at the high school.

Local Conference Committee

The members of the local Conference committee follows: George E. Lowe, conference chairman; Mrs. M. L. Evers, entertainment; R. R. Gould, reception; Perry Newton, registration; Clarence Dahlen, publicity; H. C. Beresford, recreation; Lawrence Ericsson, decorations; J. Alfred Dillan, executive secretary; Robert Falconer, banquet.

Members of the State Conference committee follow: H. S. Christenson, Minneapolis; John W. Stokes, St. Paul; C. S. Olds, St. Cloud; Rev. A. M. McDonald, St. Paul; Supt. H. C. Bell, Luverne; George E. Lowe, Brainerd; Supt. G. H. Sanberg, Rochester; Rev. William Bell, Mountain Iron; W. G. Bland, Hibbing; N. D. McLeod, Duluth; Loyal P. Thomas, Conference Executive Secretary, State Y. M. C. A., Minneapolis.

Will Assist in Paving Fete

All the delegates at the conference will march in the parade for the paving celebration on Saturday afternoon. This in itself will be a big boost for this city as the boys will be great advertisers for the city when they return to their homes. The boys will take part in the afternoon parade, each group headed by their banner carriers.

Shadow of Azariah Beekman, Lately the Prosecutor of Case, Hangs Over Trial

FALL, DOHENY BEFORE HIGH COURTS SOON

AT DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SUPREME COURT FOR ARRAIGNMENT

TO PLEAD NOT GUILTY TO THE CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD

By HERBERT LITTLE

(United Press Staff Correspondent) Washington, Nov. 9.—The machinery of justice that leads to prison bars or exoneration tomorrow brings former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall and E. L. Doheny, oil magnates, before the District of Columbia supreme court for arraignment.

Fall, recovering from an earlier illness, is here, and Doheny arrives today for the purpose of pleading not guilty to charges of conspiracy to defraud the government, brought as the result of the "little black bag" incident and other revelations of the senate oil investigation of three years ago.

Doheny and Fall have been ordered to trial Nov. 22. The arraignment is only a formality.

Doheny was accompanied here by his chief counsel, Frank J. Hogan. He came from his home in Los Angeles, where he has spent most of the time since his famous appearance before the Walsh senate committee, when he testified about the $100,000 he advanced to Fall.

Fall, a big man of the western type, has lost much weight since he resigned from the cabinet. He has spent the last three years at his ranch at Three Rivers, New Mexico, which figured largely in the oil investigation.

Both Fall and Doheny expect to be acquitted, although a long trial is expected. They will appeal to the highest courts if they lose, it is understood.

TWO MOORHEAD FIRES DO $70,000 DAMAGE

Moorhead, Minn., Nov. 9.—(UP)—Two fires, burning simultaneously, caused $70,000 damages here today. Fifty thousand bushels of wheat were destroyed when the Farmers Elevator Co. was burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at between $65,000 and $70,000.

The Battery Electric and Tire Shop which caught fire a few minutes after the elevator blaze suffered losses set at $3,000.

Origin of both fires is unknown.

Madrid, Nov. 9.—(UP)—A severe earthquake was reported in Melia, Morocco, yesterday.

HAILED AS THE HERO OF THE JAIL BREAK

TEX LATTIMER, TRUSTY AT COLUMBUS, HELPS THWART BREAK OF CONVICTS

DROPS ONE FLEEING CONVICT, JOINS GUARDS AND POLICE IN CHASE

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—(UP)—

Tex Lattimer, once a major league catcher with the Brooklyn and Philadelphia National League clubs, and now a trusty in the Ohio state penitentiary, where he is serving a life sentence for manslaughter, today was hailed the hero of the jail break yesterday in which 13 inmates escaped after shooting, beating and knifing all who opposed them in their break for liberty. Lattimer, unarmed and on duty at the outer gate, attempted to turn back the gang after they had shot four guards, wounded William Payne, secretary to Warden P. P. Thomas and a trusty at the prison switchboard.

Unable to stop them at the gate, the former ball player ran to the warden's office, obtained a revolver and fired the first shot that dropped one of the fleeing band.

Lattimer then joined the guards and police in pursuit of the others and took part in the battle that resulted in the capture of nine of the desperadoes, after six of them had been wounded. All those recaptured were back at the prison two hours after the break. Search for Oliver Glaspy, the only convict still at large, was being made today.

A movement was started today to obtain a pardon for Lattimer in recognition of his loyalty and courage in the jail break.

Gorsline told him, Garvin testified, that he had been at the murder scene, had recognized Henry Stevens, that Stevens had ordered him away and had fired two shots in the ground and finally that he had been taken to a lodge and made to swear he would not tell of the events of the night.

Then, continued Garvin, he went to Prosecutor Beekman and told him of the man's visit. So far as is known no effort ever was made by the prosecutor to investigate the story.

The state's plans for today are in doubt, Simpson always reserving the right to change his mind and choose any one of more than 100 witnesses, but finger print testimony will probably be first in order.

Court Room, Somerville, N. J., Nov. 9.—Testimony involving the presence of a finger print alleged to be that of Willie Stevens on a card found on the body of the Rev. Edward W. Hall, opened today's session of the Hall-Mills murder case.

This card the state has presented as one of its few bits of direct evidence by which it hopes to prove that Willie, his brother Henry, and their sister, Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, murdered Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills.

Edward Schwartz, finger print expert from Newark, N. J., was the witness. He had testified previously and was under cross examination. Schwartz testified today that he had found at the scene of the murder "hoofprints" when he went to examine the place where the bodies were found. The state is expected to contend the prints were those of "Jenny," Mrs. Jane Gibson's mule, and urge the testimony as further corroboration of Mrs. Gibson's story that she was at the scene of the murder and was an eye witness to at least a part of the tragedy. Mrs. Gibson is the state's star witness—now ill in a Jersey City hospital.

Courtroom, Somerville, N. J., Nov. 9.—A ghastly white plaster of paris model of the head and shoulders of a woman was drawn from a big corrugated box, placed in front of the witness stand and named "Mrs. Mills" in the Hall-Mills murder trial today.

Dr. Otto H. Schultze, New York autopsy surgeon, stood in front of it and then, in a cold, scientific manner, demonstrated with it as a model, how Mrs. Eleanor Mills met her death.

Charlotte Mills, daughter of the dead woman, could not stand the recital and left the court room.

Beside the model a cross section of a woman's head was placed.

The prosecutor, Alexander Simpson, held a light beside the weird model that all could see. Spectators threw off their lethargy and strained to hear as Simpson, speaking in a careful manner, began to call the plaster of paris model "Mrs. Mills."

Dr. Schultze soon launched into a description of the wounds which took the woman's life.

"The bullet passed through all the muscles of the neck, the wind pipe and the gullet," recited Dr. Schultze.

"Had the tongue been cut out?" asked Simpson.

"The tongue, the upper part of the windpipe and larynx were missing when I examined Mrs. Mills," said the doctor.

"Were they cut out or pulled out?" "They were missing," was all that Dr. Schultze could say.

2 CHARGES IN OPEN COURT ARE SERIOUS ONES

FORMER NEW JERSEY TROOPER SAID HE WAS OFFERED $2,500 TO LEAVE THE STATE

YESTERDAY WM. GARVIN, NEW YORK DETECTIVE, TOLD SAME STORY

By PAUL W. WHITE

(United Press Staff Correspondent) Court House, Somerville, N. J., Nov. 9.—There is an unseen defendant in the Hall-Mills case, a man who died in March of 1925.

The shadow of Azariah Beekman, late prosecutor of Somerset county, hangs over the court room where Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall and Henry and Willie Stevens are on trial charged with the murder four years ago of the Rev. Dr. Edward Wheeler Hall and his sweetheart, Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills.

In the mass of testimony that has already accumulated, two charges have been made in open court against the prosecutor who was in charge of the original investigation into the double murder.

On Saturday Henry L. Kickman, former New Jersey state trooper, testified that Beekman had offered him $2,500 to abandon his part in the investigation and leave the state.

Yesterday William Garvin, New York detective, told a similar damaging story.

He said that about three weeks after the night of September 14, 1922, when Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills were slain as they kept a love tryst near New Brunswick, a man whom he has since identified as Ralph Gorsline, vestryman in Dr. Mills' church, came to him with a confession.

Gorsline told him, Garvin testified, that he had been at the murder scene, had recognized Henry Stevens, that Stevens had ordered him away and had fired two shots in the ground and finally that he had been taken to a lodge and made to swear he would not tell of the events of the night.

SERIOUS OUTBREAK OF SMALLPOX IN COLLIERY DISTRICT

London, Nov. 9.—(UP)—A serious outbreak of smallpox with 333 cases has been reported from the colliery district of Durham. More than 40 children in the Waterhouse area were reported among the victims.

2 ARMY AVIATORS KILLED WHILE FLYING AT HIGH SPEED

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 9.—(UP)—Two army aviators were killed here late yesterday while flying at a speed of more than 100 miles an hour. Their plane crashed into the South mountains.

Baggage and a log of the trip revealed the flyers were Lieut. K. M. Hergardt, and Lieut. H. W. Downing, both of McCook field, Dayton, Ohio, en route to Bolling field, Washington, D. C. It is believed the flyers became lost in a slight fog which hung over the mountains at the time of the crash and were unable to see the mountain range before their plane crashed.

Several trains on the Rock Island and Santa Fe lines in Kansas were held up while drifted snow was cleared from the right of way. From parts of Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, upper Michigan and the Dakotas came reports of snowfall in varying amounts. In some places it melted almost as rapidly as it fell.

Northern Illinois and Indiana will encounter temperatures as low as 25 degrees above zero by tomorrow, the Chicago weather bureau predicted.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—A heavy snowfall that covered western Kansas partially paralyzed railroad traffic and is sweeping over the eastern part of the state this morning, according to railroad men arriving today on trains from the west that were delayed several hours by the storm.

Snow plows were brought into play for the first time this season. Several Rock Island trains were delayed a half a day at Mineola, Kas., until snow plows opened up the tracks.

Reports from the southwest indicate that heavy rains fell over the district hindering telephone communication. The first wintry blast that swept Kansas extended to Oklahoma and was accompanied by a big drop in temperature.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 9.—Wisconsin was in the grip of a blizzard, which came sweeping out of the north early today. Rain, which fell all through the night, turned to snow shortly before six A. M. and with a strong wind of near gale proportions, the snow was driven in blizzard-like fashion.

The mercury stood around the freezing point but according to predictions of the local weather bureau, will drop to 25 degrees above before night.

A heavy snow fall is predicted for today and from all indications, the predictions would come true.

Traffic was seriously hampered as the result of the heavy and blinding snow. Automobile windshields were completely covered and automatic windshield wipers became clogged with the heavy mush. Street cars were delayed as the result of the heavy traffic due to so many motorists not using their automobiles and causing crowded conditions on the street cars.

Twice during the month Milwaukee and vicinity has been visited by snow flurries, but the fall today is typical of mid-winter and with the strong wind may result in damage to telephone and telegraph wires through this section.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 9.—Rain last night followed by a soft melting snow and much lower temperatures early today blanketed this section of the state with snow and ice.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 9.—Virtually untouched by snow, Minnesota and Dakotas were numbed today by temperatures that fell close to zero during the night, but started rising again as a bright sun shone.

Northern Minnesota felt the cold the most, southern Minnesota and the Dakotas being out of the direct path of the sharp winds which came down out of western Canada, left drop a few flakes of snow in the region of the Twin Cities and then carried on.

SHARPLY LOWER TEMPERATURES EXPERIENCED

SNOWFALL IN SOME SECTIONS REPORTED OF 3 INCHES DEPTH

WESTERN CANADA REGARDED AS SOURCE OF BLIZZARD

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(UP)—Winter swooped in on the middle west today with general snowfall and sharply lower temperatures. Snow, which fell to a depth of three inches in western Kansas and drifted in embankments large enough to delay train schedules, fell in lesser degrees in half a dozen middle western states. Nearly everywhere the mercury was reported dropping.

Western Canada, source of the blizzard, reported temperatures near the zero mark yesterday but the mercury has started up in that territory while the storm continues southward over the Missouri and Mississippi valleys.

Several trains on the Rock Island and Santa Fe lines in Kansas were held up while drifted snow was cleared from the right of way. From parts of Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, upper Michigan and the Dakotas came reports of snowfall in varying amounts. In some places it melted almost as rapidly as it fell.

Northern Illinois and Indiana will encounter temperatures as low as 25 degrees above zero by tomorrow, the Chicago weather bureau predicted.

Shadow of Azariah Beekman, Lately the Prosecutor of Case, Hangs Over Trial

FALL, DOHENY BEFORE HIGH COURTS SOON

AT DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SUPREME COURT FOR ARRAIGNMENT

TO PLEAD NOT GUILTY TO THE CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD

By HERBERT LITTLE (United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Nov. 9.—The machinery of justice that leads to prison bars or exoneration tomorrow brings former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall and E. L. Doheny, oil magnates, before the District of Columbia supreme court for arraignment.

Fall, recovering from an earlier illness, is here, and Doheny arrives today for the purpose of pleading not guilty to charges of conspiracy to defraud the government, brought as the result of the "little black bag" incident and other revelations of the senate oil investigation of three years ago.

Doheny and Fall have been ordered to trial Nov. 22. The arraignment is only a formality. Doheny was accompanied here by his chief counsel, Frank J. Hogan. He came from his home in Los Angeles, where he has spent most of the time since his famous appearance before the Walsh senate committee, when he testified about the $100,000 he advanced to Fall.

Fall, a big man of the western type, has lost much weight since he resigned from the cabinet. He has spent the last three years at his ranch at Three Rivers, New Mexico, which figured largely in the oil investigation.

Both Fall and Doheny expect to be acquitted, although a long trial is expected. They will appeal to the highest courts if they lose. It is understood.

TWO MOORHEAD FIRES DO $70,000 DAMAGE

Moorhead, Minn., Nov. 9.—(UP)—Two fires, burning simultaneously, caused $70,000 damages here today.

Fifty thousand bushels of wheat were destroyed when the Farmers Elevator Co. was burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at between $65,000 and $70,000.

The Battery Electric and Tire Shop which caught fire a few minutes after the elevator blaze suffered losses set at $3,000.

Origin of both fires is unknown.

OUR DAILY QUAKE REPORT; MOROCCO THIS TIME

Madrid, Nov. 9.—(UP)—A severe earthquake was reported in Melia, Morocco, yesterday.

HAILED AS THE HERO OF THE JAIL BREAK

DROPS ONE FLEEING CONVICT, JOINS GUARDS AND POLICE IN CHASE

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—(UP)—Tex Lattimer, once a major league catcher with the Brooklyn and Philadelphia National League clubs, and now a trusty in the Ohio state penitentiary, where he is serving a life sentence for manslaughter, today was hailed the hero of the jail break yesterday in which 13 inmates escaped after shooting, beating and knifing all who opposed them in their break for liberty. Lattimer, unarmed and on duty at the outer gate, attempted to turn back the gang after they had shot four guards, wounded William Payne, secretary to Warden P. P. Thomas, and a trusty at the prison switchboard.

Unable to stop them at the gate, the former ball player ran to the warden's office, obtained a revolver and fired the first shot that dropped one of the fleeing band.

Lattimer then joined the guards and police in pursuit of the others and took part in the battle that resulted in the capture of nine of the desperadoes, after six of them had been wounded. All those recaptured were back at the prison two hours after the break. Search for Oliver Glaspy, the only convict still at large, was being made today.

A movement was started today to obtain a pardon for Lattimer in recognition of his loyalty and courage in the jail break.

SEEK TO AVERT AN EPIDEMIC ON ISLE OF LUZON

HOMELESS SURVIVORS ARE IN MOST DESITUTE CONDITION

STOCKS AND CROPS OF MANY ARE ENTIRELY WIPED OUT

Manila, Nov. 9.—(UP)—Medical authorities and relief workers in the province of Batangas, which was devastated by a typhoon Saturday, were working today to avert a possible epidemic among the homeless and destitute survivors.

Many of the families of Paun and other coast villages found themselves penniless, their homes, stock and crops wiped out. They will be obliged to begin life anew with whatever assistance can be given them.

Search continued for three steamers missing since the storm although it was believed little hope remained for the passengers and crew. Ten unidentified bodies recovered from the bay at Paun were believed to have been those of persons aboard the steamer Denora De La Paz, one of the missing ships.

The death list of 400, it was believed, will be increased when outlying districts are checked.

6 KILLED, 21 HURT AS TRAIN HITS BUS AT HOUSTON, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 9.—(UP)—Six persons were killed and 21 injured, all negroes, some perhaps fatally, here today when a Southern Pacific train hit a bus load of workmen on a grade crossing.

2 CHARGES IN OPEN COURT ARE SERIOUS ONES

FORMER NEW JERSEY TROOPER SAID HE WAS OFFERED $2,500 TO LEAVE THE STATE

YESTERDAY WM. GARVIN, NEW YORK DETECTIVE, TOLD SAME STORY

By PAUL W. WHITE (United Press Staff Correspondent)
Court House, Somerville, N. J., Nov. 9.—There is an unseen defendant in the Hall-Mills case, a man who died in March of 1925.

The shadow of Azariah Beekman, late prosecutor of Somerset county, hangs over the court room where Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall and Henry and Willie Stevens are on trial charged with the murder four years ago of the Rev. Dr. Edward Wheeler Hall and his sweetheart, Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills.

In the mass of testimony that has already accumulated, two charges have been made in open court against the prosecutor who was in charge of the original investigation into the double murder.

On Saturday Henry L. Kickman, former New Jersey state trooper, testified that Beekman had offered him $2,500 to abandon his part in the investigation and leave the state.

Yesterday William Garvin, New York detective, told a similar damaging story.

He said that about three weeks after the night of September 14, 1922, when Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills were slain as they kept a love tryst near New Brunswick, a man whom he has since identified as Ralph Gorsline, vestryman in Dr. Mills' church, came to him with a confession.

Gorsline told him, Garvin testified, that he had been at the murder scene, had recognized Henry Stevens, that Stevens had ordered him away and had fired two shots in the ground and finally that he had been taken to a lodge and made to swear he would not tell of the events of the night.

Then, continued Garvin, he went to Prosecutor Beekman and told him of the man's visit. So far as is known no effort ever was made by the prosecutor to investigate the story.

The state's plans for today are in doubt, Simpson always reserving the right to change his mind and choose any one of more than 100 witnesses, but finger print testimony will probably be first in order.

Court Room, Somerville, N. J., Nov. 9.—Testimony involving the presence of a finger print alleged to be that of Willie Stevens on a card found on the body of the Rev. Edward W. Hall, opened today's session of the Hall-Mills murder case.

This card the state has presented as one of its few bits of direct evidence by which it hopes to prove that Willie, his brother Henry, and their sister, Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, murdered Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills.

Edward Schwartz, finger print expert from Newark, N. J., was the witness. He had testified previously and was under cross examination.

Schwartz testified today that he had found at the scene of the murder "hoofprints" when he went to examine the place where the bodies were found. The state is expected to contend the prints were those of "Jenny," Mrs. Jane Gibson's mule, and urge the testimony as further corroboration of Mrs. Gibson's story that she was at the scene of the murder and was an eye witness to at least a part of the tragedy.

Mrs. Gibson is the state's star witness—now ill in a Jersey City hospital.

Courtroom, Somerville, N. J., Nov. 9.—A ghastly white plaster of paris model of the head and shoulders of a woman was drawn from a big corrugated box, placed in front of the witness stand and named "Mrs. Mills" in the Hall-Mills murder trial today.

Dr. Otto H. Schultze, New York autopsy surgeon, stood in front of it and then, in a cold, scientific manner, demonstrated with it as a model, how Mrs. Eleanor Mills met her death.

Charlotte Mills, daughter of the dead woman, could not stand the recital and left the court room.

Beside the model a cross section of a woman's head was placed. The prosecutor, Alexander Simpson, held a light beside the weird model that all could see. Spectators threw off their lethargy and strained to hear as Simpson, speaking in a careful manner, began to call the plaster of paris model "Mrs. Mills."

Dr. Schultze soon launched into a description of the wounds which took the woman's life.

"The bullet passed through all the muscles of the neck, the wind pipe and the gullet," recited Dr. Schultze. "Had the tongue been cut out?" asked Simpson.

"The tongue, the upper part of the windpipe and larynx were missing when I examined Mrs. Mills," said the doctor.

"Were they cut out or pulled out?" "They were missing," was all that Dr. Schultze could say.

SERIOUS OUTBREAK OF SMALLPOX IN COLLIERY DISTRICT

London, Nov. 9.—(UP)—A serious outbreak of smallpox with 333 cases has been reported from the colliery district of Durham. More than 40 children in the Waterhouse area were reported among the victims.

2 ARMY AVIATORS KILLED WHILE FLYING AT HIGH SPEED

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 9.—(UP)—Two army aviators were killed here late yesterday while flying at a speed of more than 100 miles an hour. Their plane crashed into the South mountains.

Baggage and a log of the trip revealed the flyers were Lieut. K. M. Hergardt, and Lieut. H. W. Downing, both of McCook field, Dayton, Ohio, en route to Bolling field, Washington, D. C. It is believed the flyers became lost in a slight fog which hung over the mountains at the time of the crash and were unable to see the mountain range before their plane crashed.

THOROUGH PROBE OF DOUBLE MURDER MYSTERY

Herrin, Ill., Nov. 9.—(UP)—A thorough investigation of Williamson county's most recent double murder was forecast today with the postponement of the coroner's inquest into the killing of Mayor Jeff Stone and John Milroy of the village of Colp early Sunday.

State's Attorney Arlie Boswell ordered Coroner Bell to delay his inquest until more evidence could be gathered and indicated that the investigation would be more far reaching than originally planned. Mayor Stone and his companion were slain by machine gun fire from a band of gunmen who fled in automobiles.

HOME DEPARTMENT DIRECTOR RESIGNS

Owatonna, Minn., Nov. 9.—(UP)—The resignation of Mrs. Anna M. Partridge, director of the home department of the Steele County Farm Bureau since it was organized, has been submitted to the board of directors of the bureau, effective December 3, when the annual meeting is to be held.

Mrs. Partridge was the originator of the "local leader" plan which has been adopted by the extension division of the state college of agriculture and built the Steele county women's section up to a membership of 1,000, the largest in the state.

Her future plans have not been announced.

CHICAGO'S CIVIC OPERA OPENING BRILLIANT FUNCTION

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(UP)—All records for social brilliance were surpassed at the opening performance of Chicago's civic opera last night. Vice President and Mrs. Dawes were among the distinguished patrons. Claudia Muzio was in the title role of "Aida." The same program will be repeated next Tuesday night for Queen Marie and her party.

ner, demonstrated with it as a model, how Mrs. Eleanor Mills met her death.

Charlotte Mills, daughter of the dead woman, could not stand the recital and left the court room.

Beside the model a cross section of a woman's head was placed. The prosecutor, Alexander Simpson, held a light beside the weird model that all could see. Spectators threw off their lethargy and strained to hear as Simpson, speaking in a careful manner, began to call the plaster of paris model "Mrs. Mills."

"The tongue, the upper part of the windpipe and larynx were missing when I examined Mrs. Mills," said the doctor.

"Were they cut out or pulled out?" "They were missing," was all that Dr. Schultze could say.

SHARPLY LOWER TEMPERATURES EXPERIENCED

SNOWFALL IN SOME SECTIONS REPORTED OF 3 INCHES DEPTH

WESTERN CANADA REGARDED AS SOURCE OF BLIZZARD

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(UP)—Winter swooped in on the middle west today with general snowfall and sharply lower temperatures. Snow, which fell to a depth of three inches in western Kansas and drifted in embankments large enough to delay train schedules, fell in lesser degrees in half a dozen middle western states. Nearly everywhere the mercury was reported dropping.

Western Canada, source of the blizzard, reported temperatures near the zero mark yesterday but the mercury has started up in that territory while the storm continues southeasterly over the Missouri and Mississippi valleys.

Several trains on the Rock Island and Santa Fe lines in Kansas were held up while drifted snow was cleared from the right of way. From parts of Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, upper Michigan and the Dakotas came reports of snowfall in varying amounts. In some places it melted almost as rapidly as it fell.

Northern Illinois and Indiana will encounter temperatures as low as 25 degrees above zero by tomorrow, the Chicago weather bureau predicted.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—A heavy snowfall that covered western Kansas partially paralyzed railroad traffic and is sweeping over the eastern part of the state this morning, according to railroad men arriving today on trains from the west that were delayed several hours by the storm.

Snow plows were brought into play for the first time this season. Several Rock Island trains were delayed a half a day at Mineola, Kas., until snow plows opened up the tracks.

Reports from the southwest indicate that heavy rains fell over the district hindering telephone communication. The first wintry blast that swept Kansas extended to Oklahoma and was accompanied by a big drop in temperature.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 9.—Wisconsin was in the grip of a blizzard, which came sweeping out of the north early today. Rain, which fell all through the night, turned to snow shortly before six A. M. and with a strong wind of near gale proportions, the snow was driven in blizzard-like fashion.

The mercury stood around the freezing point but according to predictions of the local weather bureau, will drop to 25 degrees above before night.

A heavy snow fall is predicted for today and from all indications, the predictions would come true.

Traffic was seriously hampered as the result of the heavy and blinding snow. Automobile windshields were completely covered and automatic windshield wipers became clogged with the heavy mush. Street cars were delayed as the result of the heavy traffic due to so many motorists not using their automobiles and causing crowded conditions on the street cars.

Twice during the month Milwaukee and vicinity has been visited by snow flurries, but the fall today is typical of mid-winter and with the strong wind may result in damage to telephone and telegraph wires through this section.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 9.—Rain last night followed by a soft melting snow and much lower temperatures early today blanketed this section of the state with snow and ice.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 9.—Virtually untouched by snow, Minnesota and Dakotas were numbed today by temperatures that fell close to zero during the night, but started rising again as a bright sun shone.

Northern Minnesota felt the cold the most, southern Minnesota and the Dakotas being out of the direct path of the sharp winds which came down out of western Canada. Left drop a few flakes of snow in the region of the Twin Cities and then clear.

Amazing Lumber

Not cut from trees

provides insulation in homes already built

YOU can enjoy many of the advantages of Celotex, the amazing lumber that stops heat and cold, by simply lining your attic with it.

This is the same amazing lumber that has made more than 90,000 new homes winter-warm, summer-cool, stronger, more economical to heat. Celotex is not cut from trees, but is manufactured from the tough fibres of cane into broad, strong boards.

Lining your attic with Celotex is neither a big nor an expensive job. You nail the big Celotex boards right to the studding and rafters. Celotex will more than pay for its cost in the fuel money it saves. Moreover it will give you an attractive extra room.

In new homes Celotex will bring you much comfort and save about one-third your fuel money when used as sheathing, replacing wood lumber; under plaster; replacing lath; and as roof insulation.

Let us figure on Celotex for your attic or, if you are going to build, let us tell you more about the many advantages it can add to your new home.

Amazing Lumber

Not cut from trees!

provides insulation in homes already built

YOU can enjoy many of the advantages of Celotex, the amazing lumber that stops heat and cold, by simply lining your attic with it.

This is the same amazing lumber that has made more than 90,000 new homes winter-warm, summer-cool, stronger, more economical to heat. Celotex is not cut from trees, but is manufactured from the tough fibres of cane into broad, strong boards.

Lining your attic with Celotex is neither a big nor an expensive job. You nail the big Celotex boards right to the studding and rafters. Celotex will more than pay for its cost in the fuel money it saves. Moreover it will give you an attractive extra room.

In new homes Celotex will bring you much comfort and save about one-third your fuel money when used as sheathing, replacing wood lumber; under plaster; replacing lath; and as roof insulation.

Let us figure on Celotex for your attic or, if you are going to build, let us tell you more about the many advantages it can add to your new home.

NOISE WILL FEATURE PARADE PEP FEST

Noise Clankers Will be Busy Competing for King Noise Making Record

PARADE STARTS 1:30 P. M.

Whistles Will Shriek, Horns Will Blow; Anything to Make a Noise Desired

The starting of the parade at 1:30 o'clock sharp Saturday afternoon at the south end of South Sixth street which will officially mark the opening of the paving celebration will get under way to the accompaniment of whistles, shrieking, bells ringing, automobile horns, gazoos, horns blowing.

In fact all manners of noisemakers will be introduced into the excitement of the occasion.

Reports were received from the various chairmen at the meeting of the general committee in charge of the celebration at the Chamber of Commerce rooms last evening which showed that each committee was working industriously each on their own end.

The General Committee went on record favoring that stores close from 1 to 3 p. m. during the hours of the celebration. The Business Men's Association have been notified of this move and the directors will undoubtedly take action on the matter at an early date.

The finance committee under the direction of F. H. Gruenhagen will soon commence its solicitation of funds.

W. V. Turcotte, chairman of the parade committee reported that he has secured three bands and the American Legion drum corps with probably the Crosby band to play at the celebration.

Floats will be gladly welcomed in the parade. The only requirement is that Mr. Turcotte be given notice of the entry of floats or marching associations so that he may assign them places in the parade.

Bands and other marching organizations will form in line from Quince street south on Sixth street. Cars will form at the extreme south end of South Sixth street, and will form in line from there on down to Barrows.

Mr. Turcotte will make an effort to have Brainerd's Fire Department head the parade, the siren blowing every step of the way.

"No celebration is complete without noise. We welcome all the children to take part in the parade and make as much noise as they want to. The same applies to the grown-ups. We want you all out there and make this celebration an outstanding success," was the statement W. V. Turcotte gave out this morning.

CELEBRATE WITH LEGION

Armistice Day Dance Promises to be Great Event of the Year—Everybody Invited

The American Legion is again trying to go "over the top" in making their annual Armistice Day ball which will be given November 11 in the U. C. T. auditorium, a grand success. Lou's seven-piece band will furnish the music.

According to Albert Englund of the Legion: "This is the big day for the Legion boys and always their annual Armistice day dance has been a grand success. This year the committee is hard at work to make this year's dance surpass all events."

Everyone is invited. You're bound to have a good time when celebrating with the Legion boys.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLE MEET

Aid Circle No. 3 Will Meet Thursday Afternoon at C. D. McKay Home

The Presbyterian Aid circle No. 3 will be entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mesdames C. D. McKay and A. K. Cohen at the home of the former, 607 Holly street.

The president Mrs. Opsahl requests that all members of the aid who possibly can do so attend this circle meeting in order that plans may be perfected for the Hi-Y banquet to be given on Saturday. Members are requested to note the change in the date from Wednesday to Thursday. A large attendance is desired and visitors are welcome.

Clark-Peterson

At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church occurred the marriage of George Clark to Miss Lucy Peterson. Rev. O. L. Bolstad read the ceremony using the ring service.

Charles Peterson acted as best man while the bride was attended by Miss Hazel Bordens. The married couple are well known locally. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chant Clark of Long Lake. He has for some time been caretaker at the C. H. Van Campen summer home on Round Lake. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson, of Gull River. The newlyweds will make their home on Hubert Lake. Their many friends unite in wishing them happiness and prosperity in their married life.

AT FULL GOSPEL ASSEMBLY

Evangelist Roy K. Reed to Conduct Series of Revival Meetings Starting Tonight

A series of revival meetings will begin at the Full Gospel Assembly, 1½ A street N. E., near the mill, tonight at 7:30, with Evangelist Roy K. Reed as the principal speaker. The meetings will continue every evening at 7:30, and they will be brimful of good things. Evangelist Reed has just closed a meeting at Casino.

On Thursday evening a Divine healing service will be held, when the sermon will be on "Healing through Jesus Christ," and special prayer for the sick. "If you are sick in body, or afflicted in any way, or have some loved one that is suffering, come to this meeting, and hear of Jesus who can heal the sick, and relieve the sufferers. Faith in Christ will bring results," Rev. Johnson, pastor of the Assembly said today.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson returned Sunday afternoon from Alexandria, where they attended the fourth annual district council meeting of the Assemblies of God. They report that this meeting was the best one of its kind, and the reports from the various parts of the field show a marked forward movement. There were twenty-eight ministers and workers present, besides a large number of delegates and visitors. This movement as a whole has about 270 missionaries on the foreign field, and is moving forwards.

ST. CLOUD GIVES VALUED PUBLICITY

BRainerd's Paving Celebration of November 13 has been given valued publicity by both St. Cloud papers.

Henry Schlipin, publisher of the St. Cloud Daily Times, featured a news story of Brainerd's Paving Celebration on the front page of his 108 page "Achievement" issue. This issue of the St. Cloud Daily Times gets a tremendous circulation in sample copies, and special orders by the many subscribers of the Times and in the regular large subscription list of the paper as well as by distribution in Brainerd and other cities. Mr. Schlipin was kind enough to give the celebration a six column heading, next in prominence to the typhoon and tidal wave that struck the Isle of Luzon.

The general committee of the Paving Celebration saw the "Achievement" edition of the St. Cloud Daily Times at their meeting last night and were very grateful for the wonderful publicity so accorded.

And then, on Monday afternoon, the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press had an editorial by Alvah Eastman which said: "Brainerd is to celebrate the opening of the paved highway in its usual successful way. Brainerd is one of St. Cloud's most esteemed neighbors, and it is to be expected the Saintly City will be well represented at the celebration on Saturday."

"Brainerd is at the north of the long stretch of paved highway that reaches the southeastern limits of Minnesota—every foot of which was built without a cent of direct taxes. No other state has made so great highway progress without calling on the general taxpayer for a penny."

The Brainerd Paving Celebration committee is grateful for the editorial comment of the Journal-Press. With both papers united on the importance of the celebration at Brainerd, the value of the paving and both stressing the desire of having a large delegation at Brainerd next Saturday, we can rest assured that our big hustling neighbor to the south of us, the "Granite City," will be here in imposing numbers.

OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

ONCE in a while it is given to a community to herald an unusual event to its neighbors. Such is Brainerd's opportunity this week, when our city is host to two outstanding affairs of the year, the opening of the pavement celebration and the Older Boys' Conference. Neither, perhaps, might alone be classed unusual; their coincidence makes them unusual.

On Friday afternoon, upwards of 300 boys from the cities of Central Minnesota will arrive for a two a half day conference here, with a program of great interest and splendid value. On Saturday, this conference will merge with the pavement celebration in commemorating the opening of the longest stretch of concrete ribbon in this part of the country.

No one, on a moment's consideration, will fail to grasp the value to Brainerd in the fact of these two meetings on the same day. The 300 delegates to the conference will disperse at the end of their meetings to all parts of central Minnesota, carrying with them the message of Brainerd's celebration. Many cities will get first hand reports of our pavement and its meaning to northern Minnesota which otherwise might have scant reports.

The way in which these delegates will radiate their enthusiasm will depend largely on their entertainment in Brainerd. Our city has always been known as a hospitable city. Many homes have already responded to the call for rooms; more are needed. It is hoped that our citizens will respond to the call for entertainment, and make sure that the boys on returning to their homes will be loud in their praise of Brainerd and her people.

USE THE STICKERS

THE Paving Celebration Committee has had printed 1,000 car windshield stickers carrying the legend: "Paving Celebration, Brainerd, Nov. 13."

These stickers are of no earthly use unless pasted on a windshield where they will fulfill their errand in giving publicity to this paving celebration. Every citizen is thankful that we have the new paving. Now come down to the Dispatch office and get a sticker to attach to your car.

It will not inconvenience your line of vision in driving your car if you attach the sticker to the right hand side of the windshield. All the buses carry the stickers and many cars are being supplied.

This is a proposition where it should not be necessary to beg people and beseech them daily to put on a sticker. Attach a sticker and let the world know there is a paving celebration here next Saturday.

MAKING GOOD WITH BUTTER

FIGURES on the development of butter production in Minnesota during the past 15 years tell a story of real achievement, says the Sioux Falls, S. D., Press.

This does not mean, of course, that all the agricultural states need only to rush into the butter business in order to make their calling and success sure. Part of the progress in Minnesota has been made at the expense of Wisconsin and Michigan. Other states might step in and take part of the butter business away from Minnesota, but there are limitations to the profitable operations in that line as in other agricultural lines. It will always be true, however, that energy and enterprise will get results.

SURE, WE SAW IT

THE Northwest Daily Press Association of Minneapolis sent the Brainerd Dispatch this letter: "Attached you will find editorial which appeared in the Minneapolis Journal last Saturday. I thought perhaps you would be interested in reading this article."

Sure, we saw it. The Minneapolis Journal editorial referred to the paving celebration at Brainerd and is one of the best we have seen on the subject. The man who wrote it has been over every inch of the route from Minneapolis to Brainerd.

THE Little Falls Daily Transcript of November 5 was an aspiring edition of 12 pages, replete with news and corresponding advertising patronage. Conveniences and equipment in its new plant make such expansion possible.

From the Daily Dispatch

Nov. 8, 1901

On Wednesday evening Miss Eloise Smith and Harold Smith entertained a party of friends at their home on Fifth Street North the event being in honor of Miss Clotilda McCullough who leaves soon for Toronto, Can., to spend the winter attending school. Many happy ideas served to furnish the company with pleasant diversion during the evening and it was the most elite gathering in this city for some time. Refreshments were served and covers were laid for 16. The following young society people composed the number: The Misses Winnifred and Clara Small, Miss Maud Davis and her guest in the city, Miss Adelaide Clark, Miss Carri Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reffner, Miss Eloise Smith, Messrs. F. E. Stout, E. M. Brown, G. W. Chadbourne, R. L. Georgeson, Frank V. Welsenburger, A. M. Cleaves, and Harold Smith.

The board of directors of the Park Opera house association held a meeting yesterday to talk over plans for the opening of the new house on December 2 and arrangements were partially completed in the way of arranging prices for seats, etc. The attraction secured for the opening night is "The Casino Girl" one of the very best musical farce comedies in this country today.

The new house will be completed, the twentieth of this month and the first performance will be on the evening of December 2. The board has spared no pains in securing one of the best attractions in the land and have contracted to pay the company nearly $800 for their performance.

Landlord J. T. Sanborn of the City hotel has under consideration some of the city, Miss Adelaide Clark, Miss

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1926

ST. CLOUD GIVES VALUED PUBLICITY

BRAINERD'S Paving Celebration of November 13 has been given valued publicity by both St. Cloud papers.

Henry Schilplin, publisher of the St. Cloud Daily Times, featured a news story of Brainerd's Paving Celebration on the front page of his 108 page "Achievement" issue. This issue of the St. Cloud Daily Times gets a tremendous circulation in sample copies, and special orders by the many subscribers of the Times and in the regular large subscription list of the paper as well as by distribution in Brainerd and other cities. Mr. Schilplin was kind enough to give the celebration a six column heading, next in prominence to the typhoon and tidal wave that struck the Isle of Luzon.

The general committee of the Paving Celebration saw the "Achievement" edition of the St. Cloud Daily Times at their meeting last night and were very grateful for the wonderful publicity so accorded.

And then, on Monday afternoon, the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press had an editorial by Alvah Eastman which said: "Brainerd is to celebrate the opening of the paved highway in its usual successful way. Brainerd is one of St. Cloud's most esteemed neighbors, and it is to be expected the Sainly City will be well represented at the celebration on Saturday."

"Brainerd is at the north of the long stretch of paved highway that reaches the southeastern limits of Minnesota—every foot of which was built without a cent of direct taxes. No other state has made so great highway progress without calling on the general taxpayer for a penny."

The Brainerd Paving Celebration committee is grateful for the editorial comment of the Journal-Press. With both papers united on the importance of the celebration at Brainerd, the value of the paving and both stressing the desire of having a large delegation at Brainerd next Saturday, we can rest assured that our big hustling neighbor to the south of us, the "Granite City," will be here in imposing numbers.

OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

ONCE in a while it is given to a community to herald an unusual event to its neighbors. Such is Brainerd's opportunity this week, when our city is host to two outstanding affairs of the year, the opening of the pavement celebration and the Older Boys' Conference. Neither, perhaps, might alone be classed unusual; their coincidence makes them unusual.

On Friday afternoon, upwards of 300 boys from the cities of Central Minnesota will arrive for a two a half day conference here, with a program of great interest and splendid value. On Saturday, this conference will merge with the pavement celebration in commemorating the opening of the longest stretch of concrete ribbon in this part of the country.

No one, on a moment's consideration, will fail to grasp the value to Brainerd in the fact of these two meetings on the same day. The 300 delegates to the conference will disperse at the end of their meetings to all parts of central Minnesota, carrying with them the message of Brainerd's celebration. Many cities will get first hand reports of our pavement and its meaning to northern Minnesota which otherwise might have scant reports.

The way in which these delegates will radiate their enthusiasm will depend largely on their entertainment in Brainerd. Our city has always been known as a hospitable city. Many homes have already responded to the call for rooms; more are needed. It is hoped that our citizens will respond to the call for entertainment, and make sure that the boys on returning to their homes will be loud in their praise of Brainerd and her people.

USE THE STICKERS

THE Paving Celebration Committee has had printed 1,000 car windshield stickers carrying the legend: "Paving Celebration, Brainerd, Nov. 13."

These stickers are of no earthly use unless pasted on a windshield where they will fulfill their errand in giving publicity to this paving celebration. Every citizen is thankful that we have the new paving. Now come down to the Dispatch office and get a sticker to attach to your car.

It will not inconvenience your line of vision in driving your car if you attach the sticker to the right hand side of the windshield. All the buses carry the stickers and many cars are being supplied.

This is a proposition where it should not be necessary to beg people and beseech them daily to put on a sticker. Attach a sticker and let the world know there is a paving celebration here next Saturday.

Part of the progress in Minnesota has been made at the expense of Wisconsin and Michigan. Other states might step in and take part of the butter business away from Minnesota, but there are limitations to the profitable operations in that line as in other agricultural lines. HOLDS SIXTY-THIRD ANNUAL CONVENTION

MISS WARD SPOKE TO THE SESSION IN AN ELOQUENT ADDRESS ON "YOU AMERICANS"

RUSSIAN SYMPHONIC CHOIR GAVE RECITAL WITHOUT ACCOMPANIMENT IN COSTUME

The first session of the general program of the M. E. A. convention was opened with a pipe organ recital by Gerhard Alexis of the First Lutheran church, St. Paul. This was followed by an invocation by Rev. B. F. Koch, St. Paul, and a violin and harp duo by Karl Scheurer and Henry J. Williams.

The two speakers of the afternoon were Raymond A. Schwieger, acting dean, School of Education, University of Kansas, and Ada Ward, lecturer, author, and traveler from England.

Mr. Schwieger spoke to us on "Human Engineering"—"Its Objectives and Tools." He considered the schools as a vast work shop where young lives were being shaped and molded. It seems that we have the materials to work upon and tools to some extent but we fall far short on the engineering.

Miss Ward spoke to the session in "You Americans."

Miss Ward had visited forty six of our states and was on her way to visit the other two, Nevada and California. She had been in France with our "Buddies" and had learned from them that there was no place like America. They had urged her to come and visit us and so she came on a troop ship with a thousand of our returning soldiers. She described the scene on board when the boys first saw their beloved America. She said they yelled and they yelled and they yelled. Such a din such a confusion. She wondered what they would do when they saw the Statue of Liberty. They would go wild she was certain but no, there was a great silence and then they burst forth singing "America."

She described her first experiences in a pullman. Marvelous! all the train formations the porter brought about. She had never seen a pullman before. England has no occasion for one. For as she put it, "They would be riding out into the ocean long before dark in their train. England has few telephones, only the business people have them while here nearly every home has a telephone. So the small boy from America who visits England is deprived of the pleasure of climbing a telephone pole.

England has few automobiles. They are luxuries there. The tax on a Ford car alone is one hundred dollars a year while here every family can own a car, at least a Ford. She thought Henry Ford, truly a great man in the middle west. He is another luxury in England. She told us of all our wonderful advantages and of our beautiful land in which we live but to her two of these stood out above all and she said tell this to the children.

The first as she traveled north into Canada and east and west along the border she found no patrol, no guards on that almost three thousand miles border line. Not so in Europe—and she wants us to help them abolish that system in Europe; the other fine thing she found here was that wherever she went we spoke her language and used the same money. The traveler in Europe finds it difficult to change his language every hundred miles or so—and also difficult to change his money.

She really told us nothing new about ourselves, but she did show us that the things we accepted in our every day living were wonderful luxuries to people living in other lands. She closed with this criticism about our home life: There is little of it in America—either you find the parents in and the children out or you find the children in and the parents out never the two together at the same time. That is deplorable. In England the home life still exists.

The evening session speakers were Will Irwin writer and lecturer, New York, and Miss Julia Spooner, Portland, Ore.

Mr. Irwin spoke on "Adventures in Propaganda." He has been a news writer, war correspondent and magazine contributor in America and England over a quarter of a century.

Mr. Irwin said that the news columns exert the only real influence on people's opinions, and in support of this he cited the use made of news during the world war. Germany spread her propaganda through the news columns, gave out daily a 5,000 word summary of war news. As a result South America was pro-German to the core. Nearly the same situation prevailed in Spain, but resulting from the conquering here, and knowing that Germany posed as the unconquerable Nation.

The allies, on the other hand, had little knowledge of how to use news as propaganda and consequently their first attempts were miserably crude. They evolved the story of the Belgian children's hands being cut off, and the story of Germans pressing the oil out of corpses for use in oiling rifles, both of which became ridiculous after the first moment of blindness had passed from the people of the allied countries. The whole war as the people knew it was built on a complicated structure of falsehood. And if the war had been of long duration that structure, because of its intrinsically weak foundation, would have crumbled even as it did after the war ended.

Following Mr. Irwin's talk Julia A. Spooner, teacher from Portland, gave an address on "The Teacher and Her Relation to the School."

Friday was given over to Sectional Meetings.

Friday night in the St. Paul Auditorium, the Russian Symphonic Choir appeared in Russian costumes. There were twenty-one voices, ten women and eleven men, who sang without accompaniment, an interesting and very difficult program.

All day Friday the teachers went to those meetings relating to their own subjects. In these meetings they heard practical talks by teachers from other schools; they learned the methods used by others in their own lines and heard their solutions of similar problems.

Saturday morning closed the session with two speeches—one on the "Sources of Courage" and the second an address by Alexander Meiklejohn of University. The meeting as a whole was designed and did give inspiration and practical help, and it is to be hoped that the two days spent in St. Paul will have definite results in every class room.

BENEFIT PROGRAM FOR PUBLIC LIBRARY

For the benefit of the Brainerd Public Library a program is to be given Friday, Nov. 19, at the Brainerd High School. The public schools of the city are preparing various numbers, musical and otherwise, for the program.

Under the direction of Miss Tornstrom the students of Brainerd High are to present a play, "The Mouse Trap," by Wm. Dean Howells. It is a comedy in four acts. It is humorous—you will like it!

The cast is as follows:
 The hero (the one and only man in the play).....Verne McNamara
 Amie Somers.....Margaret Armstrong
 Miss Bemis.....Viola McKay
 Miss Cavin.....Edna Turner
 Miss Miller.....Esther Gallagher
 Miss Roberts.....Martha Remmel
 Jane, the maid.....Hazel Coenan

The play is the main feature of the evening and the numbers presented by the other schools will no doubt be very entertaining.

Miss Laipple (in biology class): "Carl, how was fire first discovered?"
 Carl: "In the early ages a man threw a rock at an ape, the ape while trying to escape hit his head on a tree. The friction of the bump caused sparks to fly off which set another ape on fire that was standing nearby. This was the first time that fire had ever been seen."

WHO? WHAT? WHERE?

Mrs. Beresford is visiting her mother at her home in St. Paul.

The individual characters of Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, which were drawn by the first period English IV classes, have been replaced by scenes along the route, which were drawn by the other English students. Some of them are especially good.

Collette Mraz spent the week-end in Staples. Heard you had a good time, Collette.

Edna Heikkinen visited school with Ethel Emilson, Monday afternoon.

THE BURGER COLUMN

By HAM and LIM

Things we'd like to know—
 Why does Ray Anderson always look so pleasant?
 Who says "And what not?"
 Why Mayo Lawrenz never talks?
 Does smoking make "Wy" Shranklen so short?

Why Bun Mraz spends the first part of the mornings in the "old typewriter room."
 Why Howard Brotherson acts so modest.
 Why Bun Fitz. has rubber heels.
 Why Katherine Nelson always gets "E's."

Why Theresa DeBili eats "Marmola."
 Why Miss O'Brien has furrows on her forehead.
 Correction: It was not mentioned that the faculty had GRAHAM crackers with VAN BEEK'S beans at their sleigh ride party last week.

A Mystery Solved
 Where did you come from, Freshie dear?
 Out of the grade school into this here.

Why are your eyes so black and blue?
 A big Soph stopped me as I came through.
 What makes the lights in them so dim?
 The stars I saw when hit by him.

Where did you get that little tear?
 It's one of the many I'll get here.
 What makes your forehead so smooth and high?
 A Junior praised me as I came by.

What makes your cheek like a bright red rose?
 The Seniors all use it, everyone knows.
 Whence that three-cornered smile of bliss?
 I'm thinking of lessons I'd like to miss.

What do you do with those arms and hands?
 So long and dangling they need iron bands.
 Feet, whence do you come, you darling things?
 Who still can Charleston when music rings.

How did you come to be just you?
 I can't see how such a creature grew.
 But, anyhow, we're glad, my dear,
 You've three more years to stay right here. —Exchange

Candles
 All the students of Miss Oertling's General Science classes are becoming artists. Hanging on the bulletin board are a great many lighted candles of different shades and sizes all lighted up as if they were ready to jump right on to a nice green Christmas tree. Some are big and some are small but all are labeled neatly showing the gaseous section, the blue flame, the white heat, and black carbon. It is pretty to see the bright colored candles with their neat black printing but for the person who has to make them they are an awful lot of work.

Sympathy Is Expressed
 Sylvia Hautala, who would have been a member of the Junior class had her health permitted, died on the 31st of October, and was buried the following Saturday afternoon from the Whitney chapel. The class wishes to extend their sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

The Juniors also extend sympathy to the family of Fred Anderson, who died last week. Elmer is now a member of the class.

BRAINERD MEETS CROSBY-IRONTON ON ARMISTICE DAY, NOVEMBER 11

Lil Bertram Again

Yes sir, I just couldn't hold myself in no longer—haha bust myself forth an' tell all you people about what I do Sunday. A fella told me the other day it was wonderful how I could write so much nothin'. I don't know whether that's a knock or a boost but whenever I'm undecided like that I always count 'em as boosts.

I see where an actor—fella says that people would rather cry than laugh—says that if you make 'em cry they'll remember you always but if you make them laugh they'll forget you within the month. I don't know but maybe he is right. I remember how, after a speech by Dad beginning, "this'll hurt me more'n it does you," I'd crawl away and figure out how I would run away and get famous and then arrive home just in time to pay off the mortgage an' save the folks from being put out in the street. And I had such a good time I decided to forego the pleasure of reality. I was an awful high strung kid, I guess. However I'm endorsing the laugh and live moment. When I build my theatre I'm gonna have "To laugh!" in big gold letters on the red velvet curtains.

Well most of the teachers up at hi school went to M. E. A. and so we shut down for two, three days. You know this is first time doin' nothing hasn't been a pleasure. Maybe it was because it wasn't no change from what I'd been doing right along. Now don't get the idea that I'm lazy, I'm not—just temperamental. Set around the Y most of the time watchin' the boys play pool, don't play myself—not that kind. I got another kind tho that I play every Saturday night. One of the lounge hazards down there told me that Y. M. C. A. stood for Young Mens Criminal Association. I don't doubt him none. Only last Saturday Al Dillan himself wanted to bet me two bits that Red Grange's team would win in "1 Minute to Play."

M. E. A. seems to be quite a help to the teachers. I think they ought to have one twice a year just so they could keep up on the latest methods. I hope they didn't pass up the Hennepin-Orpheum, the State, the Town Pump, or Dick Long's Orchestra which I see by the papers were to be features of the program as I would like to hear about them when they get back. I hear that this M. E. A. is something like the Elks. I was standin' out in front of the new Elks building the other evening, giving it my approving glance when one of the Brothers snuggles up to me an' asks me if I'm an Elk. I sees my chance an' says: "No dear, I'm a stag-to-nite!" I guess that should hold him, huh?

I hope they will make November 11 a legal holiday, so I will have something to look forward to. However till then I bid you all good-nite.

Your 'bun amy' (as Miss Bowers would insist on me saying).
 BERTIE.

P. S. I was gonna tell yuh what I did Sunday, wasn't I? Well, I wrote this.

Bedtime Story
 "On one occasion when I was down to the big city of Chicago," said uncle Hiram to me the other evening, "I had to vibrate my vocal chords considerable to help me out of a predicament that I was in. It happened like this."

"You know how some of these big cities is stretched out? Well, I stayed at a place which was exactly nine miles from the loop district, and every day I would go down town and meander among the skyscrapers. This particular day I was going to do some shopping and I started out with a whole dollar in my pocket. This was before the war and it only cost a nickel to ride the street car. I paid my fare and, after my nine mile ride, I started out on my daily routine. As luck would have it I somehow or other, lost the change from that dollar and I was so busy mourning that I didn't even think of how I was going to get home.

Finally it dawned upon me that I might have a nine mile hike before the night was over. This didn't strike me funny so I takes the first street car that comes along and tells the conductor how sorry I was, but he expressed his sympathy by stopping the car and putting me off on terra firma. I waited for the next car and sprung the same story only I stretched it as long as possible. I rode eight blocks with him.

To make a long story short, it took me exactly 27 street cars, 6½ hours, and a two mile walk to get home.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL SEASON WILL OPEN ON THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2

LAST FOOTBALL GAME OF THE PRESENT SEASON WILL BE PLAYED AT CROSBY

Brainerd plays its final game of the season with Crosby-Ironton on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, at Crosby. Brainerd has a good chance to win this game. In the last game with Crosby-Ironton, Crosby-Ironton by virtue of two touchdowns in the last half, tied the game at 13-13. With the first basketball game December 2, Coach Beresford will issue the call for men who want to try out for the team next Monday. Brainerd should have a good team this year with some of the regulars and reserves from last year's championship team left and with much promising new material.

Grandma: "Well, Tommy, how are you doing at school?"
 Tommy: "Fine, thank you. I've got the best position in the class."
 Grandma: "At the top?"
 Tommy: "No, at the bottom, just opposite the fireplace."

If you had entered one of Miss Laipple's biology classes last week you would have wondered at the bored expressions on the pupils' faces. Miss Laipple was certainly explaining the lesson patiently enough. What then could it have been? After listening a few minutes you would have realized that they were trying not to show their jealousy of Miss Laipple's ease in pronouncing those awful tongue twisters.

The stealthy figure of a man crept into the room. Glancing hastily around he spied another door; with quick, jerky motions he opened it to make sure no one was in the adjoining room. Closing the door quickly, he searched the room in feverish haste. The telephone rang! Hastily he removed the receiver from the hook and resumed his search. Finally he found the object of his search. Footsteps were heard outside the door; with one stride he was out of the room. Don't get excited, this was only the English IV students displaying their dramatic ability. We have a few future John Barrymores and E. H. Sothers in our group.

F. F. (in biology class after searching over her papers quite earnestly, looking for her menu): "I lost my breakfast."

Fresh: "Is it lunch time yet?"

Tanlac Saves Lincoln Couple From Years of Suffering

Threatened With Complete Loss of Health, Couple Now Being Congratulated by Friends on Their Surprising Recovery

If you are nearing the tragic moment when good health will slip from you; if indigestion, nervousness, kidney disorders and other ailments torture you, benefit from the remarkable experience of August W. Wuelser of Lincoln, Neb., and his charming wife. In his comfortable home, 1916 U Street, Mr. Wuelser recently said: "Our condition was unbearable. We suffered from stomach trouble, nervousness, headaches and no appetite for food. And when we did eat we had indigestion and gastritis pains. We both looked underfed, weak and scrawny. We sought relief, without success, till Tanlac came to the rescue. "Since then neither Mrs. Wuelser nor myself have hardly had a sick day. We feel stronger and healthier, eat everything without a thought of pain. This great tonic saved both of us from suffering. I want to tell the world Tanlac is a great medicine."

Mr. and Mrs. Wuelser are only two of thousands now enjoying the benefits of good health and vital strength, thanks to Tanlac, the safe, effective remedy made from roots, barks and herbs, according to the famous Tanlac formula. Ask your druggist for Tanlac—today! More than 40 million bottles sold.

The play is the main feature of the evening and the numbers presented by the other schools will no doubt be very entertaining.

Miss Laipple (in biology class): "Carl, how was fire first discovered?" Carl: "In the early ages a man threw a rock at an ape, the ape while trying to escape hit his head on a tree. The friction of the bump caused sparks to fly off which set another ape on fire that was standing nearby. This was the first time that fire had ever been seen."

THE BURGER COLUMN

By HAM and LIM

Things we'd like to know—

Why does Ray Anderson always look so pleasant?

Who says "And what not?"

Why Mayo Lawrenz never talks?

Does smoking make "Wy" Shranklen so short?

Why Bun Mraz spends the first part of the mornings in the "old typewriter room."

Why Howard Brotherson acts so modest.

Why Bus Fitz. has rubber heels.

Why Katherine Nelson always gets "E's."

Why Theresa DeBill eats "Marmola."

Why Miss O'Brien has furrows on her forehead.

Correction: It was not mentioned that the faculty had GRAHAM crackers with VAN BEEK'S beans at their sleigh ride party last week.

A Mystery Solved

Where did you come from, Freshie dear?

Out of the grade school into this here.

Why are your eyes so black and blue?

A big Soph stopped me as I came through.

What makes the lights in them so dim?

The stars I saw when hit by him.

Where did you get that little tear?

It's one of the many I'll get here.

What makes your forehead so smooth and high?

A Junior praised me as I came by.

What makes your cheek like a bright red rose?

The Seniors all use it, everyone knows.

Whence that three-cornered smile of bliss?

I'm thinking of lessons I'd like to miss.

What do you do with those arms and hands?

So long and dangling they need iron bands.

Feet, whence do you come, you darling things?

Who still can Charleston when music rings.

How did you come to be just you?

I can't see how such a creature grew.

But, anyhow, we're glad, my dear.

You've three more years to stay right here.

BRAINERD MEETS CROSBY-IRONTON ON ARMISTICE DAY, NOVEMBER 11

Lil Bertram Again

Yes sir, I just couldn't hold myself in no longer—haha bust myself forth an' tell a: you people about what I do Sunday. A fella told me the other day it was wonderful how I could write so much nothin'. I don't know whether that's a knock or a boost but whenever I'm undecided like that I always count 'em as boosts.

I see where an actor—fella says that people would rather cry than laugh—says that if you make 'em cry they'll remember you always but if you make them laugh they'll forget you within the month. I don't know but maybe he is right. I remember how, after a speech by Dad beginning, "this'll hurt me more'n it does you," I'd crawl away and figure out how I would run away and get famous and then arrive home just in time to pay off the mortgage an' save the folks from being put out in the street. And I had such a good time I decided to forego the pleasure of reality. I was an awful high strung kid, I guess. However I'm indorsing the laugh and live moment. When I build my theatre I'm gonna have "To laugh!" in big gold letters on the red velvet curtains.

Well most of the teachers up at hi school went to M. E. A. and so we shut down for two, three days. You know this is first time doin' nothing hasn't been a pleasure. Maybe it was because it wasn't no change from what I'd been doing right along. Now don't get the idea that I'm lazy, I'm not—just temperamental. Set around the Y most of the time watchin' the boys play pool, don't play myself—not that kind. I got another kind tho that I play every Saturday night. One of the lounge lizards down there told me that Y. M. C. A. stood for Young Mens Criminal Association. I don't doubt him none. Only last Saturday Al Dillan himself wanted to bet me two bits that Red Grange's team would win in "1 Minute to Play."

M. E. A. seems to be quite a help to the teachers. I think they ought to have one twice a year just so they could keep up on the latest methods. I hope they didn't pass up the Hennepin-Orpheum, the State, the Town Pump, or Dick Long's Orchestra which I see by the papers were to be features of the program as I would like to hear about them when they get back. I hear that this M. E. A. is something like the Elks. I was standin' out in front of the new Elks building the other evening, giving it my approving glance when one of the Brothers snuggles up to me an' asks me if I'm an Elk. I sees my chance an' says: "No dear, I'm a stag to-night!" I guess that should hold him, huh?

I hope they will make November 11 a legal holiday, so I will have something to look forward to. However till then I bid you all good-nite.

Your 'bun amy' (as Miss Bowers would insist on me saying).

BERTIE.

P. S. I was gonna tell yuh what I did Sunday, wasn't I? Well, I wrote this.

Bedtime Story

"On one occasion when I was down to the big city of Chicago," said uncle Hiram to me the other evening, "I had to vibrate my vocal chords considerably to help me out of a predicament that I was in. It happened like this."

"You know how some of these big cities is stretched out? Well, I stayed at a place which was exactly nine miles from the loop district, and every day I would go down town and meander among the skyscrapers. This particular day I was going to do some shopping and I started out with a whole dollar in my pocket. This was before the war and it only cost a nickel to ride the street car. I paid my fare and, after my nine mile ride, I started out on my daily routine. As luck would have it I somehow or other, lost the change from that dollar and I was so busy mourning that I didn't even think of how I was going to get home.

Finally I dawned upon me that I might have a nine mile hike before the night was over. This didn't strike me funny so I takes the first street car that comes along and tells the conductor how sorry I was, but he expressed his sympathy by stopping the car and putting me off on terra firma. I waited for the next car and sprung the same story only I stretched it as long as possible. I rode eight blocks with him.

To make a long story short, it took me exactly 27 street cars, 6½ hours, and a two mile walk to get home.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL SEASON WILL OPEN ON THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2

LAST FOOTBALL GAME OF THE PRESENT SEASON WILL BE PLAYED AT CROSBY

Brainerd plays its final game of the season with Crosby-Ironton on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, at Crosby. Brainerd has a good chance to win this game. In the last game with Crosby-Ironton, Crosby-Ironton by virtue of two touchdowns in the last half, tied the game at 13-13.

With the first basketball game December 2, Coach Beresford will issue the call for men who want to try out for the team next Monday. Brainerd should have a good team this year with some of the regulars and reserves from last year's championship team left and with much promising new material.

FOOTBALL IS GOOD GAME

ARMY AND SYRACUSE GAME ROUGH ON THE REFEREE

PRINCETON MOB BATTLES BOSTON POLICE, STEALS HARVARD GOAL POSTS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 9.—After seven years of serious experimenting, making changes here and adding penalties there to remove any brutality from the game, the football rules committee saw the approach of the 1926 season with a feeling of absolute security.

With the exception of a dissenting coach here, who grumbled that new football was basketball and a young coach on the other side who pleaded for less persecution of the open game, it was generally admitted that it was a good game and the attendance figures showed it.

Then before the season had been half finished the rules committee saw evidence that, while the game had been made fairly safe for the player, it wasn't so safe for the official or the spectator.

In an early season game between the Army and Syracuse some of the best players on the two teams were hauled from the field, one or two of them for the season and an impetuous young Syracuse player hit the referee.

Reports said only the iron discipline of West Point prevented what might have developed into a riot.

Few of the players were actually involved and there were no players in the Princeton mob that stormed and battled Boston police last Saturday when police, matching their tens against hundreds, tried to keep the Harvard goal posts from the hands of the celebrating victors.

Just a week before that the Brown boys tore the Yale goal posts out of the bowl and went home with them. The Brown faculty apologized and asked for a bill to cover the damages.

The football rules committee considers the theft of goal posts trivial but it recognizes that the act of purloining souvenirs may lead up to something more serious.

The committee also believes that the subject of proper officiating and the necessity of protecting the officials may require attention, especially since it was reported to the committee that Jake Slagle, the Princeton star, kicked field goal in the final period of the Harvard game—on the fifth down.

Princeton was reported to have had four downs and when Harvard didn't claim the ball and the officials didn't take it away from Princeton, the Princeton team kept it and added three more points to the score.

Members of the rules committee will not permit themselves to be quoted on matters of opinion or policy before they discuss them in executive session.

It was reported today that because of the Princeton-Harvard game Saturday, athletic relations between these two members of the once vaunted "Big Three" are certain to be severed.

Princeton claims Harvard played unfairly and Harvard claims Princeton played the same way and they both booed and refused to sing each other's songs.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Unexpectedly given the best line plunging attack he has had in four years, Coach Yost is drilling the team along the smashing attack line this week. The sudden blooming of Walter Weber, star of last week's game against Wisconsin, as a plunger is responsible for the change of attack.

Columbus, O.—Defensive drills designed to stop the famed Michigan passing attack are the center of interest in the Ohio State football camp this week. Coach Wilce is also giving much time to warning his men against offside playing which has cost State many yards in penalties this year.

Bloomington, Ind.—Polishing of the attack to be used against Mississippi A. & M. next Saturday is occupying the time of the Indian grid men. It will be the last 1926 home game for the Hoosiers.

Evanston, Ill.—For the first time since the days of Paddy Driscoll Northwestern's football team is preparing for a game with Chicago university confident of victory. The Northwestern team has not been scored against in three conference games and is a heavy favorite to defeat the Maroons.

Chicago—Coach Stagg at Chicago is trying his best to bolster the morale of a team that seemingly is hopelessly outclassed by its opponent in next Saturday's game. For the first time in years, the Maroons go into the game rated the under dog.

Notre Dame, Ind.—Knut Rockne is preparing to meet the Army without the aid of five regulars. The heart injury to Arthur Parisien, star quarterback, last Saturday has removed him from the lineup indefinitely. Rockne has already predicted that "if my team doesn't play at least fifty per cent better football than it has played this year, we will be disgraced."

Champaign, Ill.—Concentrating on plays that are to be used against Ohio State a week from Saturday, Coach Bob Buppke of Illinois is giving little attention to the Wabash game Saturday.

Madison, Wis.—Coach George Little of Wisconsin has denied that he intends to resign as director of Badger athletics. The denial came while the coach had his team hard at work preparing for Iowa next Saturday. Little said that "I'll give Wisconsin a Western conference championship before I'll even think of resigning."

Iowa City, Ia.—Long charging and blocking practices characterized the training sessions of the Iowa football this week. Coach Ingwersen is optimistic about the team's chance for a victory against Wisconsin next Saturday, despite the bad showing of last week end.

Minneapolis—Hoping to gain an even break in the two game series with Michigan, Doc Spears has the Minnesota team practicing for the Wolverines a week from Saturday. Butler comes next Saturday but no trouble is anticipated from that source.

New Haven, Conn.—Jack Failing, Johnny Garvey, Floyd Brown and Walter Bradley, Yale reserves, who showed well against Maryland, today appeared possible starters against Princeton Saturday. They were promoted to the varsity last night.

West Point—Methods of breaking up forward pass plays occupied the Army's start of preparations for Notre Dame.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Upon a snow covered field, Coach Murray sent his Marquette university eleven through a stiff drill today in preparation for the game against Auburn university at Birmingham, Ala., Saturday.

Appleton, Wis.—With the annual struggle with Carroll college only a few days away, Coach Mark Catlin was sending his Lawrence college eleven through stiff practice. The game Saturday on the local field will practically decide the Wisconsin-Illinois conference championship.

Novel Insurance Scheme

Mrs. Karin Michaelis, a Danish-American writer, has suggested that every girl child should be insured from birth against divorce or spinsterhood after becoming forty-five years old. Her father would pay the premium until his daughter married, when her husband would keep up the payments, under Mrs. Michaelis' plan. If the couple remained married the husband would benefit from the annuity his wife receives after celebrating their silver wedding anniversary, and the single woman would begin drawing her annuity when forty-five. If the married couple parted the wife immediately would begin drawing her annuity.

Light Foils Thieves

A 30-inch, 43,000,000-candlepower searchlamp has cut the theft rate of motor cars in half, according to officials of the Worcester (Mass.) police department, where the powerful light is used. Instructed to be on the lookout for the light from its position on a building, the police, on seeing it, go at once to the nearest patrol box for details of the theft. The light is then turned on the part of the city where the theft was committed.

Dog Has Bank Account

A Brooklyn man named Feidler has kept "bachelor hall" for several years, his only household companion being Billy Boy, his dog. The latter is just a common dog, but he is an aristocrat in that he has a $5,000 bank account. Mr. Feidler, fearing that the dog might not receive proper care in the event of his mother's sudden departure from this world, has deposited that sum in the bank to be devoted to the care of the animal.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Unexpectedly given the best line plunging attack he has had in four years, Coach Yost is drilling the team along the smashing attack line this week. The sudden blooming of Walter Weber, star of last week's game against Wisconsin, as a plunger is responsible for the change of attack.

Columbus, O.—Defensive drills designed to stop the famed Michigan passing attack are the center of interest in the Ohio State football camp this week. Coach Wilce is also giving much time to warning his men against offside playing which has cost State many yards in penalties this year.

Bloomington, Ind.—Polishing of the attack to be used against Mississippi A. & M. next Saturday is occupying the time of the Indian grid men. It will be the last 1926 home game for the Hoosiers.

Evanston, Ill.—For the first time since the days of Paddy Driscoll Northwestern's football team is preparing for a game with Chicago university confident of victory. The Northwestern team has not been scored against in three conference games and is a heavy favorite to defeat the Maroons.

Chicago—Coach Stagg at Chicago is trying his best to bolster the morale of a team that seemingly is hopelessly outclassed by its opponent in next Saturday's game. For the first time in years, the Maroons go into the game rated the under dog.

Notre Dame, Ind.—Knute Rockne is preparing to meet the Army without the aid of five regulars. The heart injury to Arthur Parisien, star quarterback, last Saturday has removed him from the lineup indefinitely. Rockne has already predicted that "if my team doesn't play at least fifty per cent better football than it has played this year, we will be disgraced."

Champaign, Ill.—Concentrating on plays that are to be used against Ohio State a week from Saturday, Coach Bob Buppke of Illinois is giving little attention to the Wabash game Saturday.

Madison, Wis.—Coach George Little of Wisconsin has denied that he intends to resign as director of Badger athletics. The denial came while the coach had his team hard at work preparing for Iowa next Saturday. Little said that "I'll give Wisconsin a Western conference championship before I'll even think of resigning."

Iowa City, Ia.—Long charging and blocking practices characterized the training sessions of the Iowa football this week. Coach Ingwersen is optimistic about the team's chance for a victory against Wisconsin next Saturday, despite the bad showing of last week end.

Minneapolis—Hoping to gain an even break in the two game series with Michigan, Doc Spears has the Minnesota team practicing for the Wolverines a week from Saturday. Butler comes next Saturday but no trouble is anticipated from that source.

New Haven, Conn.—Jack Failing, Johnny Garvey, Floyd Brown and Walter Bradley, Yale reserves, who showed well against Maryland, today appeared possible starters against Princeton Saturday. They were promoted to the varsity last night.

West Point—Methods of breaking up forward pass plays occupied the Army's start of preparations for Notre Dame.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Upon a snow covered field, Coach Murray sent his Marquette university eleven through a stiff drill today in preparation for the game against Auburn university at Birmingham, Ala., Saturday.

Appleton, Wis.—With the annual struggle with Carroll college only a few days away, Coach Mark Catlin was sending his Lawrence college eleven through stiff practice. The game Saturday on the local field will practically decide the Wisconsin-Illinois conference championship.

Novel Insurance Scheme

Mrs. Karin Michaels, a Danish-American writer, has suggested that every girl child should be insured from birth against divorce or spinsterhood after becoming forty-five years old. Her father would pay the premium until his daughter married, when her husband would keep up the payments, under Mrs. Michaels' plan. If the couple remained married the husband would benefit from the annuity his wife receives after celebrating their silver wedding anniversary, and the single woman would begin drawing her annuity when forty-five. If the married couple parted the wife immediately would begin drawing her annuity.

Light Foils Thieves

A 30-inch, 43,000,000-candlepower searchlamp has cut the theft rate of motor cars in half, according to officials of the Worcester (Mass.) police department, where the powerful light is used. Instructed to be on the lookout for the light from its position on a building, the police, on seeing it, go at once to the nearest patrol box for details of the theft. The light is then turned on the part of the city where the theft was committed.

Dog Has Bank Account

A Brooklyn man named Feidler has kept "bachelor hall" for several years, his only household companion being Billy Boy, his dog. The latter is just a common dog, but he is an aristocrat in that he has a $5,000 bank account. Mr. Feidler, fearing that the dog might not receive proper care in the event of his master's sudden departure from this world, has deposited that sum in the bank to be devoted to the care of the animal.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS AID LIBRARY

Entertainment for Benefit of Library at High School Gymnasium

FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 19

Proceeds to be Used to Buy New Books for Children's Department

At the high school gymnasium, Friday evening, November 19, the public schools will put on an entertainment for the benefit of the library. Please mark this date on your calendar and keep it open for this event. The men on the library board will cater to physical well being in the domestic science room. The proceeds will be used in buying new books for the children's department. How sadly new books are needed may be gathered from this remark passed in the department recently, "Your books look as though they came out of Noah's ark." This was called forth because of the dilapidated condition of some of the books. Books will wear out, especially, after having been circulated 50 or 60 times and often more than that. According to Clara T. Jones, librarian, "We do not like to have books on our shelves in this condition, but the demand is so great—1926 books went out in the children's department during the month of October—that our allowance for books does not keep pace with the need for them.

"It was for the purpose of swelling this allowance for books that the schools so kindly consented to put on this entertainment and we hope that the public will patronize it largely, so that our shelves will be replenished with new books and the children made happy by new books to read.

"Did you ever stop to think about how very different life would be if there were no books? Charles Kingsley once said, 'Aside from a living man, there is nothing more wonderful than a book.' He was right, people are intensely interesting, but if we didn't get our minds away from people once in a while and read books they wouldn't be so interesting. One gets tired of the fundamentalism of things and what diverts your mind more readily than a book? You can pick up a good biography of some well known person and as you read it, you realize that even the greatest people in the world have had much worse troubles than yours. The world seems brighter to you. You can lose yourself in the plot of a well written novel and find, at the end, that you've really enjoyed yourself.

"Grown-ups realize the value of books much more than children do but children grow up so very quickly and what can give them a more sound foundation or a clearer outlook on life than the knowledge and love of books? That is what schools and libraries are endeavoring to give them. That is what they are for.

"Books is a small common word and like so many other common things, it is not given a great deal of serious thought. Children's book week is from November 7-13, and it is hoped that the public will give it a little thought and consideration. It should be of especially great interest to people who have children and 'minds in the making.' The literature and art to tomorrow will be the work of the children of today. Make them fit by starting them on the road to bookland and most of them will follow joyfully.

"Visit the library during children's book week and see the display of books. You may order any of them you wish from the librarians. Come down with your children and see their library. Read with them. Make it a real 'Children's Book Week.'

Don't you resent the old folks when they say you haven't any backbone?

Haven't you often wished you could show them that bobbed hair and short skirts don't prevent a girl from having all the finer instincts?

—Well, here's your chance to open their eyes.

Take them to see "The Goose Hangs High" at the New Park theatre, Monday night, Nov. 15, and we'll bet you a lipstick against a pair of rolled stockings that they'll have their eyes opened!

SPURNED SUITOR
AND SWEETHEART
IN CRITICAL SHAPE

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 9.—(UP)—Peter Wysocki and Ruth Olson, the girl whom he shot when she jilted him for another date Sunday night, were in a critical condition at Emergency hospital here today.

After having fired the bullet that entered Miss Olson's breast close to her heart, Wysocki turned the gun upon himself inflicting a serious wound.

Attending physicians said both are conscious but that their conditions are extremely critical.

Miss Olson, who up until a short time ago was a waitress at a Milwaukee hospital, came here from Prentice, Wis.

SAY CHARGES OF CHEATING AT BAR
EXAMS UNFOUNDED

Madison, Wis., Nov. 9.—(UP)—Probe of charges of wholesale cheating in the last state bar examination revealed that such accusations were unfounded, but at the same time disclosed sufficient irregularities to create "a deplorable situation," the Wisconsin supreme court stated today in a formal opinion by Justice Christian Doerflinger.

WINTER SWOOPS DOWN ON MIDDLE WEST WITH SNOW

ried a near blizzard to other parts of the middle west.

Reports of precipitation for the 24 hours ended at 7 A. M. today showed but .01 of an inch at Devil's Lake, N. D., and only a trace in the Twin Cities.

Minimum temperature reports were:

Minnesota—St. Paul-Minneapolis, 12 degrees; Brainerd, 9; Duluth, 8, and Moorhead, 6.

North Dakota—Bismarck, 24; Williston, 16; Devil's Lake, 10.

South Dakota—Rapid City, 24; Pierre, 22; Huron, 20.

The weather forecast was for some relief for the northwestern part of Minnesota today and for generally warmer in the northwest Wednesday.

STEAMER WESTWARD
HO IS AGROUND

Miami, Fla., Nov. 9.—(Via Tropical Radio to the United Press)—The steamship Westward Ho is aground two miles south of Hillsboro light, radio advices received here today said. Captain Snow of the tug Warbler reported his tug was alongside the Westward Ho and that efforts were being made to float the grounded ship.

TURN HAIR DARK
WITH SAGE TEA

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product for only 75 cents. It is improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

"Purges" and
"Physics" Bad
for Old Folks

DR. W. B. CALDWELL
AT THE AGE OF 83

While Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, knew that constipation was the curse of advancing age, he did not believe that a "purge" or "physic" every little while was necessary.

To him, it seemed cruel that so many constipated old people had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to "regulate" the bowels of old folks. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but each dose helps to strengthen the bowel muscles, shortly establishing natural "regularity." It never gripes, sickens, or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

If past fifty, buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.
